Hawaii Book Tour by Local Author

Over eight book stores in Hawaii have asked to host a book signing event at the end of February with author S.P. Grogan and his new mystery, Captain Cooked. Grogan is the author of best selling Vegas Die, with a just completed contest searching for a hidden dagger. Going to the Big Island? Clues in Captain Cooked could lead readers using GPS to search out a secreted Hawaiian war club worth $5,000.

Captain Cooked is available locally at Plaza Books, 7380 S. Eastern (#120) -- 800.470.8878. For more Hawaii book tour date info, go to: www.CaptainCooked.com.

Captain Cooked was written because of Author Grogan's many visits to the Big Island and his enjoyment of the multi-cultures. Over 25 recipes from the island's top chefs and restaurants are to be found in Captain Cooked. The plot of the mystery gives a reader a tour of the island's attractions. A portion of book sales proceeds is being contributed to the Hawaiian Food Bank program.
